An Olympia woman, Diann O. Youngquist, has been appointed Director of Personnel at The Evergreen State College, Dean Clabaugh, the college's Vice President for Business, announced today.

Mrs. Youngquist, presently a Personnel Officer II for the State Department of Employment Security, will assume her new post September 1, Clabaugh said.

A 1964 graduate of Seattle Pacific College, Mrs. Youngquist was formerly employed by the State Department of Personnel as a personnel analyst. She has also served as manager of the classified and circulation departments of The Raymond Herald, Advertiser, as personnel director of Sales Training of Portland, and as a personnel assistant at Fort Hood, Texas.

In her new position, Mrs. Youngquist will coordinate and administer the college's personnel program for nonacademic and classified staff. She is replacing former Personnel Director Carl J. Brown, who was recently named Director of Auxiliary Enterprises at Evergreen.
