A historian who has interviewed more than 120 of the leading members of the foreign policy community associated with the Johnson administration tops this week's (Jan. 29-Feb. 2) events program at The Evergreen State College.

Dr. Paige Mulhollan, associate dean of the college of arts and sciences at Kansas State University, will discuss "The Pentagon Papers and Reality" Tuesday (Jan. 30) at 12:15 p.m. in Lecture Hall One. His talk is free and the public is invited.

Also offered to the public is a demonstration and discussion of wire sculpture by Joe Police, an Eastern Washington sculptor. The presentation is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday in the reference alcove of the Evans Library.

Faculty Member Beryl Crowe will discuss "Mankind's Political Self" at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in Lecture Hall Five. His lecture is also free and open to the public.

Three movies are also on tap this week at Evergreen. The Family Film Series presents "Death of a Legend" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Lecture Hall One. A donation of $1 for adults and 50¢ for children under 12 is requested.

Rudolph Valentino stars in the 1925 version of "The Son of the Sheik," presented in the Cinemarchives Series at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Lecture Hall One. The film is free.

"King of Hearts," a movie which examines the effects of war on man's sanity, will be shown in the Friday night film series at 7 and 9:30 p.m. in Lecture Hall One. A 50¢ donation is requested.
