

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 24, 1974

Music by Debussy, Milhaud, and Rossini will be featured during a free public concert April 29 in the main lobby of the Library Building at The Evergreen State College. The program -- featuring Evergreen faculty members William Winden, Donald Chan, and Robert Gottlieb and Olympia operatic soprano Joan Winden -- will begin at 8 p.m.

Chan, Director of the Evergreen Jazz Ensemble and Chamber Singers, will begin the concert with a Debussy piano cycle entitled "Pour le Piano". Mrs. Winden, who has performed in a variety of Northwest opera productions, will perform "Chansons de Bilitis", a Debussy vocal arrangement. William Winden, a professional operatic bass baritone, will then present selections from Shubert, including "Schwanengesang (Swan Song)".

The Windens, accompanied by Chan on piano, will join for selected duets by Purcell and Rossini, the latter selections from the opera, "The Italian in Algiers".

A viola sonata by Milhaud, performed by Gottlieb with piano accompaniment by Chan, will conclude the evening concert.

####

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services