

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98501

for immediate release

April 27, 1976

Classical guitarist Israel Moultrie will headline the first in a series of four Sunday afternoon classical music performances slated at The Evergreen State College during the month of May.

Moultrie, slated to perform at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon in the main lobby of the Evans Library Building, will present works by musical masters Bach, Diaz, and Piszt, along with a number of his own compositions.

Admission to the afternoon concert --- sponsored by the Evergreen Gig Commission --- is $1 for students and senior citizens and $1.50 for the general public. Children under five are free.

-30-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services