Bob Shephard, a 1976 graduate of The Evergreen State College, has won a Danforth Graduate Fellowship to fund studies at the graduate school of his choice for up to four years.

Shephard, now a resident of Oakland, California, is one of only 100 persons selected for the Danforth award from more than 2900 applicants. The Evergreen alum spent the past several months preparing for the Graduate Records Exam and was recently notified that he achieved a nearly perfect (99.6) score on the GRE.
