HAPPENINGS FROM THE THIRD WORLD COALITION - OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 1982

ORIENTATION SUMMARY

The Third World Coalition, along with Third World Women, the Ujamaa Society, Asian/Pacific Island Coalition, MEChA, and the Northwest Indian Center, would like to express sincerest thanks for your participation and support of our Orientation activities.

We sponsored eleven activities and events spread over a two week period with our total attendance being approximately 400 persons.

More events, both social and educational are planned for the remainder of Fall Quarter and the rest of the school year. Your input would be greatly appreciated.

OFFICE HOURS POSTED

Office hours and meeting days for the Third World student groups have been set for Fall Quarter. This being a crucial time of year for activity planning, you are encouraged to participate and help your respective ethnic organizations set their calendar of events for the coming school year. Your monies are being spent in support of these offices. Please take advantage of the opportunity to be a part of them.

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY

Plans are now under way for Indigenous Peoples Day, a multicultural and educational event on November 17. This third annual event will feature entertainment, workshops, speakers, and a light dinner. Although the date has been set, the Coalition is still seeking further input and ideas.

If you wish to participate or have any questions, contact the Third World Coalition student groups. More information will be available in the next newsletter.

NEWSWEEK EDITOR AT EVERGREEN

Jerrold Footlick, a senior editor for Newsweek Magazine will be on campus the week of October 31-November 5. Footlick has been the Education and Justice Editor for the periodical and has authored several books including The College Scene Now and The Black Athlete. He has received major journalism awards for his work on "The Furor Over Reverse Discrimination," and has been regularly applauded during his college visits over his discussions on minority and feminist issues.

Mr. Footlick will be visiting various programs as a guest lecturer and is available for informal get togethers as well. For information, contact Priscilla Bowerman in L-1416, at 866-6597.

SPOKANE HOSTS INDIAN CONFERENCE

The Northwest Indian Education Conference is scheduled to be held October 31-November 3, at the Sheraton, Spokane. Activities for the conference include workshops, seminar sessions, art exhibits, field trips, and a banquet. One of the major topics to be discussed will be Raegan's new Federalism and its effects on Indian education. The event is being sponsored by the Coeur d'Alene Tribe.

Registration fees for students are only $25 (includes banquet). If you are interested in attending, contact Ruth Ray at (208) 274-3101, or the Northwest Indian Center here on campus in L-3220, or call 866-6034.

WELCOME THIRD WORLD WOMEN

Julie Leialoha, Coordinator

To all new and returning Third World Women, I encourage all of you to come and check out the Third World Women's Organization. It is an organization which provides support to women of color, whose needs cannot be met by other women's groups. We also sponsor events with other existing minority groups. Any type of help offered is greatly appreciated.

To keep you up to date on what is happening with Third World Women, I encourage you to attend the weekly meetings. Third World Women meetings are held every Monday from noon to 1 p.m. in L-3205. Bring a lunch and we'll have a rap session, or drop by any time during office hours in L-3211.

BECOMING AMERICAN

Becoming American is a contemporary film depicting the struggles of a Southeast Asian refugee family entering the United States. The film is being sponsored by the Evergreen Political Information Center (EPIC), and will be shown free of charge on Monday, November 8, in Lecture Hall 1 at 7:30 p.m.

A demonstration of Laotian dancing will follow the film.

WORKSHOPS SLATED

KEY Special Services, a student service office under the direction of Educational Support Programs, will be sponsoring a workshop on Time Management and Study Skills on Wednesday, November 17 from 3-5 p.m. in L-3510. All KEY students are encouraged to attend, however, any interested persons are welcome. For more information, contact Jeff Hamley or Sherry Warren at 866-6464.
