Winter Mountaineering --- a fundamental course in winter mountain travel --- will be offered Winter Quarter at The Evergreen State College as part of the Leisure Education program.

An introductory slide presentation on the program, which will offer instruction in basic techniques of snowshoeing, skiing, avalanche considerations, safety, survival, and snow, rock and ice climbing, will be offered January 7, beginning at 7 p.m. in Evergreen's Lecture Hall Two. The evening presentation is free.

Cost of the program, which includes five weekend trips and two short weekly meetings for seminars, is $46 for the general public. Cost does not include transportation, food, or equipment rentals.

The first workshop meeting is January 13 at 7 p.m. in the College Recreation Center. Complete information is available by calling the Recreation Center, 866-6530.
