

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98501

for immediate release
June 10, 1976

for further information
Judy Annis, 866-6128
Rindetta Jones, 866-6020

Rindetta Jones, director of the Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Office at The Evergreen State College, has been elected national first vice president of the American Association for Affirmative Action.

Jones, who was elected at the second annual AAAA conference in San Diego, California, will be responsible for the process of creating a training/cross cultural awareness package, a national speakers bureau, self evaluation instruments, and formats for the AAAA's newsletters, advertising and other organizational programs.

Others elected to the national organization's posts include: Garrison Hickman from Capital University in Columbus Ohio, president; Betty Newcomb from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, second vice president; Stephen Faustina from San Jose State University, secretary; and Tyree Felder II from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia, treasurer.