Milton Wolff, commander of an American brigade in the Spanish Civil War, will discuss Past and Present U.S. Foreign Policy Towards Spain in a free public lecture May 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Lecture Hall One at The Evergreen State College.

Sponsored by the Evergreen Political Information Center, Wolff will accompany his talk with an award winning film on the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, which he led, and on the efforts of its 3200 men to "fight for Spanish Democracy."

Both his talk and the film are free and open to the public.
