An evening of folk music will be presented at The Evergreen State College January 14 by Linda Allen, a native Northwesterner who has spent the past three years singing professionally in San Francisco.

The 8 p.m. concert, scheduled for the third floor Library Lounge (near room 3604), will feature traditional American and British folk songs as well as some of Ms. Allen's own compositions for which she provides accompaniment on either the dulcimer, guitar or autoharp.

A frequent performer in the Tacoma-Olympia area, Ms. Allen is a member of a local group, "Rainbow Road," which has appeared in several area restaurant and clubs. She has also performed with the United Services Organization on tours in Vietnam and Thailand, and has made a USO hospital tour of Japan, Australia, Okinawa and the Philippines.

Her performance, sponsored by Eye-5, is free and open to the public.
