FOR RELEASE

December 8, 1970

David G. Barry, Vice President and Provost of The Evergreen State College at Olympia, will be the speaker for the University of Oregon's fall Graduation Convocation December 11.

Entitled "Responsibility For Choice," Barry's address deals with the global environmental crisis and the decisions young people must help shape as they assume positions of leadership in society.

Barry, biologist and former Dean of the School of Natural Sciences and Mathematics and Interim Executive Vice President at San Jose State College, California, became chief academic officer at The Evergreen State College in August, 1969.
