

NEWS

The Evergreen State College

Olympia, Washington 98505

~~750-2700~~
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 22, 1972

Dean E. Clabaugh, Vice President for Business at The Evergreen State College, is one of 120 persons selected from a large field of applicants for participation in the 1972 Institute for Educational Management, scheduled June 18 to July 28 on the campus of the Harvard Business School.

The summer institute is a program of the Graduate School of Business Administration, jointly sponsored by the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University.

The annual program is presented with the assistance of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, The Ford Foundation, United States Steel Foundation, Esso Education Foundation, and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

The institute is designed to create a greater interest in management training in all its forms and to promote a greater professionalism in all components of educational management.

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services