The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505 866-6128

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 3, 1973

James C. Sainsbury, program coordinator for the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, has been appointed assistant to the president of The Evergreen State College. The appointment, effective October 15, was announced by President Charles J. McCann.

Sainsbury, 40, with OPP&FM since 1967, has been the agency's chief analyst for education budgets.

In his new job, Sainsbury will coordinate Evergreen's relations and plans with various local and state governmental agencies, the Legislature, the Council on Higher Education and other institutions of higher learning.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Sainsbury holds bachelor of science degrees in civil and industrial engineering, and a master's degree in urban planning.

Prior to joining OPP&FM, Sainsbury was a planner for the Washington Department of Commerce and Economic Development, a project planner for Harstad Associates, Incorporated, of Seattle, and a commissioned officer in the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey.
